

Ten NDA Students Named OMEA All-District Honors Musicians

Notre Dame Academy known for its outstanding and largest all-girls Fine Arts Program in northwest Ohio had ten students perform as All-District Honors Musicians at the Stranahan Theatre on January 29. All-District Honors performers in Band and Choir are selected from recorded auditions. District I of the Ohio Music Educators Association (OMEA) encompasses the six counties of northwest Ohio.

Students honored for Choir were sophomores Rachel Cannon, Erin Johns, and Ali Rose Hotz along with freshmen Taryn Loo and April Varner. Honors Orchestra students were sophomore Naomi Kolovich (Violin), freshman Gabrielle Hymel (Cello), and eighth grader Anjali Fernandes (Violin). Honors Band students included freshmen Mary Armbruster (Alto Saxophone) and Emily Hinojosa (Clarinet).

Photo Caption: All-District Honors Musicians from Notre Dame Academy were (left to right) Anjali Fernandes, Naomi Kolovich, April Varner, Taryn Loo, Rachel Cannon, Erin Johns, Ali Rose Hotz, Gabrielle Hymel, and Mary Armbruster. Not pictured: Emily Hinojosa.

